

Granting of rights of use

To enable University of Music and Theatre Munich to enhance the flexibility and quality of teaching (e.g., through audio and video recordings of classes, rehearsals, examination concerts, etc.) as well as to facilitate public representation (e.g., concerts, open house events, film screenings, distribution of images to the press, the university's online presence including social media pages, image brochures, and other promotional materials, the university's CD series, etc.), I hereby grant University of Music and Theatre Munich comprehensive, exclusive, unlimited, and perpetual usage rights to all performances (lectures, rehearsals, performances, examination concerts, etc.) in which I participate or have participated as part of my education/studies at University of Music and Theatre Munich.

In particular, this includes the right to record performances in which I participate or have participated as part of my education/studies at University of Music and Theatre Munich on video or audio media, to reproduce and distribute the video or audio media on which my performance has been recorded, and to make my performance publicly accessible and broadcast it. In addition, the university has the right to edit and modify, including the comprehensive use of the results.

The university has the right to transfer the performance to a third party without my renewed consent. I waive any possible income from the use of the performance.

I reserve the right of use.
