

Call for Applications: Scholarship Offene Chancen (Application deadline: 05.06.2024)

What is it about?

The Scholarship Offene Chancen granted by the Stiftung Offene Chancen

- includes financial support of EUR 500 per month and is granted exclusively to HMTM students for one year (12 months).
- is a graduation scholarship to provide financial support during the examination period and in the immediate aftermath.
- is for socially needy and highly talented students with a personal (family) history of flight or, in individual cases, a history of migration.

Who can apply?

All HMTM students (except for the Master Class certificate) with a personal (family) history of flight or a migration background in their final year. A (family) history of flight or of migration exists if you or your parents have fled to Germany.

What are the criteria?

Folgende Kriterien werden bei der Auswahl in unterschiedlicher Gewichtung berücksichtigt:

- personal (family) history of flight (or migration history)
- completion of studies within a maximum of one year
- social indigence
- outstanding academic achievements and a high level of academic talent
- (social) engagement

How can I apply?

Your application must include the following documents:

1. motivation letter incl. reasons for the application
2. detailed, fully formulated CV inkl.
 - a brief description of your own or your family's history of flight or migration,
 - a brief description of your developments (studies and beyond),
 - a brief description of your plans for graduation and your career goals,
3. letter of recommendation, if possible from the main subject teacher incl.
 - description of the student's academic qualities,
 - description of the student's previous commitment to the study programme,
 - confirmation of the upcoming graduation and the student's ability to graduate
4. transcript of records
5. a brief description of the financial situation (see the attached form)

Please send these documents at the latest by 05.06.2024 to: stipendien@hmtm.de

What is the Stiftung Offene Chancen?

The Stiftung offene Chancen non-profit foundation that supports young people with a personal history of flight (or in some cases a history of migration) in education, training, or study. Supporting music education and especially professional music education plays an important (www.offene.chancen.de).

Good luck with your application!