Enrolment Barriers and Grounds for Refusal

I confirm that none of the following applies to me:

- I suffer from an illness that could seriously endanger the health of other students or significantly impair the proper conduct of my studies.
- A carer has been appointed for me.
- I have been convicted of an intentional criminal offense and sentenced to at least one year's imprisonment, the sentence is still subject to unlimited information and the nature of the offence committed is likely to endanger or disrupt my studies.
- I have been legally disqualified from holding public office.
- I have definitively failed an examination required by the examination regulations or a probationary period defined by statute or cannot meet the requirements for examination registration for reasons for which I am responsible, and I am not switching to another degree programme.

If any of these apply, enrolment requires separate approval by the university or enrolment must be refused. If obstacles to enrolment or reasons for refusal of enrolment subsequently become known, enrolment can be revoked.

I also acknowledge that minors are not authorised to act for the enrolment procedure. Due to their limited legal capacity, minors require the consent of their legal representatives, which must be presented at the time of enrolment.

I apply for enrolment for the winter semester 2026/27 in accordance with the information I have provided above. I confirm that I have provided the information in the application completely and truthfully. I understand that negligent or intentionally false information is an offence and may lead to the revocation of enrolment.
